

Anna Axelson

At Artifex Systems AB, Anna Axelson is responsible for Sales and Commercial activities, with global responsibility for business strategy, new business development, and business control. She brings over 30 years of experience in the automotive industry, with a focus on sales, management, business control, and project leadership. Anna has a strong track record in customer relations, commercial agreements, and building long-term partnerships. She is a result-driven and engaged leader with passion for creating value – both for the company and the customer.