

Fiona Jonasson

At Artifex Systems AB, Fiona is responsible for People & Compliance function. With over 25 years of international progressive experience in human resource management, she brings deep expertise in organizational development, employee relations, HRIS, and global compliance. Fiona is skilled at aligning business needs with HR programs and policies that support the company's vision, values, and strategic goals. As Artifex transitions and grows, Fiona's focus is to provide strong leadership across the organization and foster a culture of continuous learning, development, and improvement.