

Mikael Andersson

Mikael is responsible for R&D and Program management at Artifex Systems AB, a senior leader with 30 years of experience in the automotive industry and has a Bachelor of Science in Integrated Product Development. He holds a position within Program Management and Manufacturing Technologies at Artifex Systems AB and has a strong background in program development, operational management, and leading cross-functional teams. Mikael is recognized for driving complex projects from concept to production. He is a strong workshop facilitator with a focus on continuous improvement, innovation, and aligning product development with business goals.