

Caroline Brooks

Executive Director Procurement

Caroline joined Artifex Interior Systems as Executive Director, Procurement in June 2024. She leads Artifex's forward-thinking and skilled procurement team, with a key priority to embed processes and practices that complement the size and aspirations of Artifex. This enables the team to focus on highly valuable procurement activities.

Prior to joining Artifex, Caroline held the position of Senior Procurement Manager Interiors at Jaguar Land Rover (JLR), where she started in 2012. During her time at JLR, she worked in various roles, including Body in White and Aftermarket Procurement. Before JLR, Caroline was with the Construction Engineering and Procurement Organization – Bechtel. In her international capacity at Bechtel, she supported highly complex projects while being based in London, Calgary, and Texas.

Caroline is a passionate procurement professional with nearly 20 years of experience. She advocates for change and the utilization of technology to enrich working practices. Additionally, she is a steadfast supporter of employee development, providing opportunities, inclusivity, and helping people thrive professionally.

Caroline holds a Bachelor of Science (BSc) degree in Business Administration from the University of Cardiff and a Master of Science (MSc) in Purchasing and Supply Chain Management from Robert Gordon University. She is also accredited MCIPS.
